Base and wall units have all the usual cooking utensils and there is crockery and glassware for four. On the right is the bedroom with double bed having a comfy memory foam mattress, chest of drawers with bedside lamp and mirror above. Plantation shutters stylishly form the dividing wall between the bedroom and the lounge area allowing for complete privacy when fully closed but also allowing for the option to fully or half open to allow air and light to circulate through both rooms.

Large patio doors with electrically operated security shutters lead onto the beachside patio from the lounge area, which has a double, deep mattress sofa bed, recently fitted carpet, table and chairs, oak nest of tables and a wall mounted television. The efficient heater is also wall mounted. Off the lounge is the shower room with waterproof panelling to walls, with toilet, vanity unit with washbasin, and newly fitted water heater.
