The Kingfisher

- * There is only one species of kingfisher in the UK
- * Kingfishers eat fish and aquatic insects
- * The beak of a Kingfisher is so aerodynamic, it was mimicked when designing the Japanese Bullet Train
- * Kingfishers can be seen in the lake behind the café, but don't blink or you'll miss them!
- * If you are lucky enough to see a Kingfisher then please complete the quick survey at

Where is your next holiday going to be?

We hope you have had a great time visiting Dunster Beach.
